MEN SWORE TO KILL MOHR FOR "AFFAIRS"

Negroes Held for Murder Say Many Threatened Wealthy Newport Doctor.

Warren township: We are all in this together, and whatever is coming we will take all together, but Mrs. Mohr must go with us because she was with us all the way through this affair."

The negroes now tell a story that whatever they said against themselves or Mrs. Mohr was under duress—that they were under the pressure of the police when they incriminated her and themselves. They have a new story now, a story that calls to mind the defense that was offered in the Carman case on Long Island.

Healis, who was chauffeur of the car on the fatal ride, says now that the shots were fired from a machine that passed close beside his stalled car on the Washington road. The assailants fied after they had made their murderous attack. way through this affair."

ous attack.

To this story Brown adds, and Spell-man echoes, that there was at least one man in Providence who swore to kill the physician because of his loose code of morals. As to the name of this man all the negroes remain silent; they are under advice of counsel now.

Found Threatening Letter.

"Dr. Mohr, to my knowledge, has been threatened by several porminent Rhode Island people," Healis declared "I found a letter in his car from a man living on Elmwood avenue, in which he threatened the doctor and said that if he did not cease his attentions to his wife he would fill him full of bul-

Undoubtedly the backrush of feeling in favor of Mrs. Mohr is due principally to the facts about his life that have come to light since his murder. Some of these have been told by Mrs. Mohr to the police, others are incorporated in the bill of particulars that she filed when she was granted a generation from when she was granted a separation from her hisband.
Once by poison and once by pistol was the life of Mrs. Mohr threatened by her nusband, according to allegations in the bill.

This paper was filed more than a year

This paper was filed more than a year ago. The State contends that it gives incontrovertible proof of the wife's ceaseless jealousy. Her attorneys intend to show through he paper that, despite her many disputes with Dr, Mohr, she continued to live with him. This, they say, proves the boundlessness of her love.

To strengthen her position on this score, to gain further facts about the physician's amours, a detective agency has been employed in behalf of the woman. No small part of the work assigned to the private sleuths is that of gaining information tending to discredit the negroes, a provision against the possible appearance of any one of them as a State's witness.

the crime was committed. They take the ethical ground that they cannot usurp the functions of their neighbors, even though those functions require the to get their evidence together.

Providence and the network of proof

Already the private detectives for Mrs. Mohr have gone into the field that the police have left. The result naturally has been in the favor of the weman. Today when reporters went among those persons, who, in the regular sequence of proceedings, would become witnesses, they found that where absolute conviction was in the minds a few days ago a strange loss of memory or a complete reversal has come.

On the day that the message from ory or a complete reversal has come Mrs. Mohr will not be called into court again until September 16, when she will be given a preliminary hear-ing. The coroners jury will sit the It would not surprise many if the whole case lapsed without an indictment against the woman.

WEEK IN FINANCIAL CIRCLES

While these vectors are serving to help Mrs. Mohr, the police, through their own officials' inertia, are unconscious agents to her advantage.

A conflict of authority has come up between the department heads of Warrent township, where the crime was committed, and Providence, where the negroes made their confessions. It is not a clash as to which has the right to proceed in the gathering of evidence. Rather it is an evasion of that necessary duty.

In Providence the police say that all activity rests with the township where the crime was committed. They take the crime was committed. They take the British were paying at the rate of $1.07 for the goods which they were purchasing from the United States.

Immediately British money began to climb back almost as rapidly as it had fallen. Several factors contributed to this recovery. In the first place the erasing of the possibility of war between the United States and Germany left the American bankers in a position to enter at once upon negotiations for the proposed British credit through which payinent may be made for the large war orders that have been placed in this country by the allies—a step which could not well be taken while there was a possibility of America needing their aid for war purposes.

Several of the large Eastern roads have issued monthly reports setting for the material gains in both gross and net revenues.

The Eric for July increased gross carnings $250.547, and by a further reduction in operating expenses brought its increase in net up to $700.000. The Pennsylvania and New York Central brought their earnings up approximately $2,000.00 each, which represented an announced that practically every piece of that company's equipment, both on the lines East and West, was in use. It was only a few months ago that the Pennsylvania reported 75,000 file cars.

Comparatively heavy liquidation of foreign owned American securities, brought about by the premium placed upon them through the low rate of exchange, occasioned a broader market for exchange and precipitated short gets fully under way the company will

Dr. A. E. Ballard, Camp Meeting President, Gives His Rules for Longevity.

OCEAN GROVE, N. J., Sept. 5.—
Still quite vigorous and energetic enough to direct two of the largest camp meetings in New Jersey, the Rev. Dr. A. E. Ballard is again the central figure of interest at the annual Ocean Grove camp meeting now being held here in the big auditorium. Dr. Ballard is almost ninety-five years old and is president of both the Ocean Grove and the Pitman Grove Camp Meeting Associations. His strongest bid for fame, however, is the fact that he is the only Methodist minister who ever had his salary increased after he was ninety years old.
